

Post-Everything Album Credits

Here are some of the songs I have written over the last 10 years. There are many more that I have not included for various reasons. Maybe I lost the masters, maybe I listened to them and didn't like them, maybe they just don't fit on this album or maybe they'll be released at a later date. It was hard to choose which versions to release as a lot of the songs have been recorded many times with different people, and on occasion I have mixed and matched parts from different versions.

There is no distinct style to this. It's just whatever came out at the time. I hope you enjoy it as much as I do.

Thanks to Andres, Nick, Jan, Si, Dave C, Dan, Ricky, Sarah, Max, Jon-Paul, and of course to my other friends who have been very truthful (sometimes blunt) about my writing over the years.
